

ORACLE ENTERPRISE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT CONSULTING SERVICES

Insight Enables Performance.

“The best vision is insight.” Malcolm Forbes

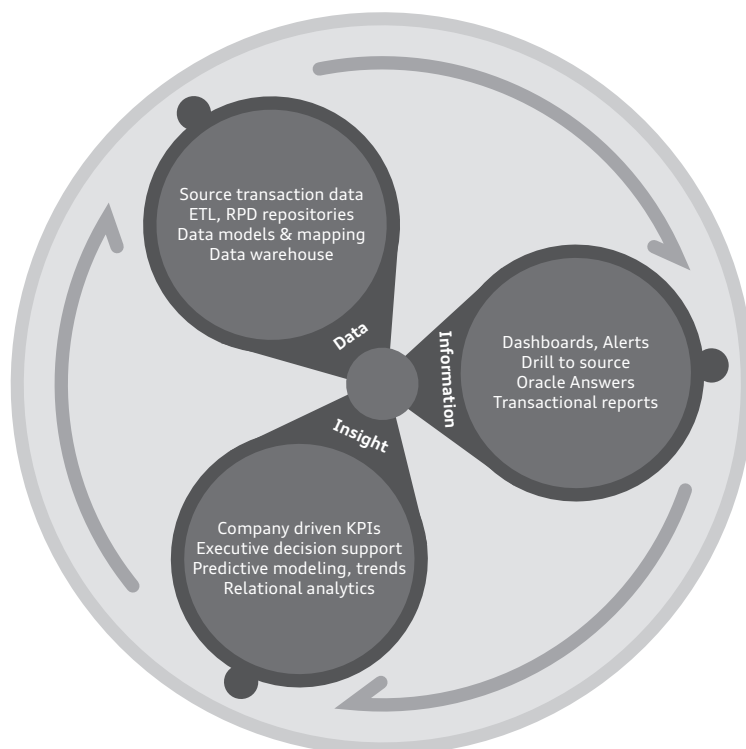

Enterprise Performance Management (EPM) encompasses a range of disciplines that enable executives to more effectively measure, manage, and control their business in the context of the ever-changing global business environment. EPM includes budgeting/forecasting, consolidations and close, and complex business modeling. Working hand-in-hand with Oracle Business Intelligence, EPM application provide complete insight into business operations and trends that allow for rapid decision-making

EPM Strategy | Design | Managed Services | OBI/EPM Integration

Oracle EPM Consulting Services from Apps Associates deepens your understanding of your business and its true drivers. Our team of seasoned functional and technical specialists maps your business processes and translates them into sophisticated models. The output of those models can be fed into your OBI reporting platform to present your actual data with modeled projections. And once you go live, we can keep your EPM applications running smoothly with our managed services support.

Apps Associates Business Intelligence Practice Proven Methods for Delivering Insight to Your Business

“Working with Apps Associates to stand-up Oracle EPM managed support services to transition day-to-day support of our Essbase, financial planning, and reporting systems to the Apps Associates team. It was a team effort to thoroughly plan the transition approach, timeline, and catalog that made the subsequent teaching and proving steps painless. Apps Associates staffed the team with experienced people who worked closely with our team to execute the transition resulting in the smoothest standup of a managed service team I have experienced.”
