

Integrated FADEL Royalty Management Solution for Oracle Cloud Financials

In today's highly collaborative Life Sciences industry, companies increasingly rely on partners to assist in the development of medicines, therapies and medical devices. Many companies license products, technologies and processes to their Research, Development and Commercial partners. These business arrangements are typically formalized in contracted intellectual property rights that require royalty payments from the licensee.

Managing these Royalty payments is typically a significant challenge for Life Science companies. Royalty management processes are often handled with inadequate offline spreadsheets, silo databases and manual processes. Without adequate tools, workforce efficiency, financial statement accuracy and internal controls all may suffer.

To address this challenge, Apps Associates and FADEL have collaborated to integrate Oracle Cloud Financials with the FADEL Royalty Management solution.

This solution extension for Oracle Cloud Financials helps streamline calculation, verification and processing of royalty payments by having a central place from which to manage the Royalty process. With a central control point to capture the Royalty process, companies can:

- Improve efficiency by eliminating manual processes and duplication of information / effort
- More accurately forecast and report royalty payments
- Improve internal controls
