The Apps Approach to Automation

Apps Associates believes in a full-lifecycle approach to Automation. Our method of Assess, Develop, Adapt, and Maintain (A.D.A.M.) allows us to meet our customers wherever they are in their automation journey. We help our customers understand the benefits of automation by assessing their existing processes and recommending areas where automation will make the biggest impact. We work with our customers every step of the way, from discovery to implementation. Our dedication to Change Management, knowledge transition and documentation are part of our long-term support and success model as we strive for exceptional user adoption and satisfaction.

SmartStart for MuleSoft

Apps Associates SmartStart for MuleSoft is a great way for customers to kickstart their automation journey. The Apps team will assess up to five current processes in your organization and recommend one process to automate. Our team of experts will assist your organization in defining current processes and how those would operate in an ideal scenario.
